ARTS WEEK

Dear Parents/Carers,

21st May 2015

Next week at St Cyprians is our Arts Week. This is a special week where all classes in the school spend the week learning through the arts.

This year our topic is: Endangered Animals

Throughout the week, the children will be learning about the endangered animals the school has adopted, through the arts. They will take part in specialist art, music, drama and literacy lessons, where they will explore the countries and habitats of the chosen animals. The animals we are saving are:

Early Years: Tiger

Yrs1-3: Panda

Yrs4-6: Orangutan

Office Staff: Polar Bear

Throughout the week, the children will have the opportunity to develop their sense of social justice and moral responsibility, by joining in fundraising for the Nepalese Earthquake Disaster Fund and World Wide Fund for Nature.

At St Cyprian's Primary Academy, we take every opportunity to get children excited about reading. On Friday 29th May, we will be celebrating this by having a 'Bedtime Story Afternoon' in the hall. To create this atmosphere, we are asking the children to bring their pyjamas to school - ready to change into them after lunch (pillows and blankets are also welcome!) Please ensure your child comes into school wearing the full school uniform. During the afternoon, all year groups will go to the hall and enjoy an afternoon of snuggling up with their pillows and blankets while they listen to stories read to them by their teachers!

During the day, the pupils will also have an opportunity to enter a competition which allows them to write stories with exciting plots and rich language. The competition is for the title Read Write Inc. Young Author of the Year. The theme is 'Courage'.
