Read the text.

In 55BC, the first Roman raid happened. The Roman general, Julius Caesar, came across the sea to Britain. He wanted to make Britain a part of the Roman Empire. He brought with him two Roman legions.

One year later, in 54BC, Julius Caesar came back across the sea. This time he brought with him 5 legions and 2000 cavalrymen. The Roman army fought in south east England and this time got to the other side of the River Thames. The British tribes agreed to pay tributes to Rome and were left in peace.

Nearly one hundred years later, the Romans returned to Britain for a third time. Emperor Claudius was now in charge and he was determined to make Britain part of the Roman Empire.
