

Benin Exhibition

What can you find out about your Benin artefact? Think carefully about how best to present your information for the exhibition. You can cut and re-order the boxes any way you like. Draw or stick a picture of the artefact in the box in the middle and write what it is above.

Key facts about the artefact:

Material(s) the artefact is made from:

Why have these materials been used?

What the artefact teaches us about Benin culture:

Questions about the artefact:

Ask your visitors a question to check they have been reading the information carefully.

Benin Exhibition

What can you find out about your Benin artefact? Think carefully about how best to present your information for the exhibition. You can cut and re-order the boxes any way you like. Draw or stick a picture of the artefact in the box in the middle and write what it is above.

The history of the artefact:

Material(s) the artefact is made from:

Why have these materials been used?

Important dates:

Important facts:

What the artefact teaches us about Benin culture:

Questions about the artefact:

Ask your visitors a question to check they have been reading the information carefully.

Benin Exhibition

What can you find out about your Benin artefact? Think carefully about how best to present your information for the exhibition. You can cut and re-order the boxes any way you like. Draw or stick a picture of the artefact in the box in the middle and write what it is above.

The history of the artefact:

Material(s) the artefact is made from:

Why have these materials been used?

Key facts and dates:

How can the artefact be classified (grouped)?

What the artefact teaches us about Benin culture:

How useful is the artefact as a source of evidence for Benin culture?