

House Diagram

Imagine you lived back in the time of the Indus Valley civilisation and that you have just moved into a new house in the city.

Your challenge is to draw and label your house pointing out its features. Remember to include labels or descriptions about:

1. What the house is built out of.
2. What rooms it has and how they are used.
3. Features of the house, like the roof terrace and windows.
4. The streets and amenities in the city, such as the drainage system.

House Information Table

Imagine you lived back in the time of the Indus Valley civilisation and that you have just moved into a city. Your challenge is to read the letter and complete the following information table for Lothi so he can decide whether or not he would like to move to Mohenjo-Daro.

Dear Friend,

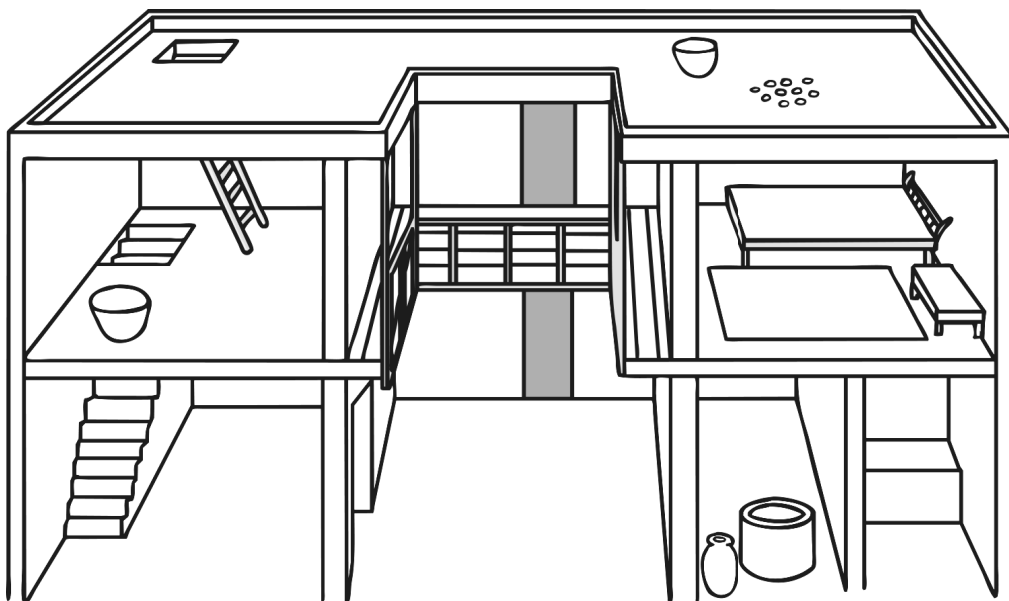

Congratulations on your new house! I am so pleased for you and I hope you will be very happy living in Mohenjo-Daro. I have heard that it is a fabulous city with many modern features which will make your life very comfortable. I am thinking of moving to Mohenjo-Daro myself soon. Please can you give me some information about your house and the city to help me decide if it is the place for me. I need to know:

- 1. What the house is built out of.
- 2. What rooms it has and how they can be used.
- 3. What features the house has.
- 4. What the streets and amenities are like in the city (like the drainage system).
- 5. What Mohenjo-Daro is like.

Many thanks.

Your pal,

Lothi

House Information Table

Empty rounded rectangular box with a pair of glasses icon on the right side.

Provide the information Lothi requires by filling in the table. Include as much detail as you can.

What is your house built out of?
What rooms does your house have? How are they used?
What other features does your house have?
What are the streets like?
What amenities are there in the city?
What is it like to live in Mohenjo-Daro?

House Letter

Imagine you lived back in the time of the Indus Valley civilisation and that you have just moved into a large city like Mohenjo-Daro.

Dear Friend,

Congratulations on your new house! I am so pleased for you and I hope you will be very happy living in Mohenjo-Daro. I have heard that it is a fabulous city with many modern features which will make your life very comfortable. Please write and tell me all about your new house and city, I can't wait to hear about it!

Your pal,

Lothi

Your challenge is to write back to Lothi describing your house and what it is like to live in Mohenjo-Daro.

Remember to include details about:

1. What the house is built out of.
2. What rooms it has and how they are used.
3. Features of the house, like the roof terrace and windows.
4. The streets and amenities in the city, like the drainage system.
5. What Mohenjo-Daro is like and how you are settling in.
6. You can describe if you are rich or poor and describe your house accordingly.

