

5

At the start of the year 70% of the members of a gym are male.

By the end of the year

- the number of female members has increased by 50%
- the number of male members has reduced by 1,355
- there are now the same number of male and female members.

How many male members were there at the start of the year?