Jesus the Healer

The Paralyse<sup>d</sup> Man

The background of the slide features a stylized illustration of a crowd of people in a biblical setting. At the top, a person's head and shoulders are visible, wearing a white head covering. Below, several other figures are shown, some with their hands raised, suggesting a scene of healing or a public gathering. The style is reminiscent of a comic book or a graphic novel, with bold lines and a limited color palette of blues, greys, and browns.

Aim

- I can retell a healing miracle.

Success Criteria

- I can create a model to retell one of Jesus' healing miracles.
- I can explain the importance of the friends to the miracle taking place.

Mark

House Building

An important part of this story was the fact that the man was lowered down through the roof to Jesus by his friends.

Can you see a difference between houses from Jesus' time and modern houses?

Would this miracle have happened in the same way with modern housing?

House Building

Nothing could move them, but Jesus said to them, "Why do you doubt? In the story, it states: 'I say to you, rise, take up your bed and go to your home.' Now some teachers of the law were sitting there, thinking to themselves, 'Why should this man say such a thing? He's blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?' Jesus said to them, "Son, may I ask a question?" "I say to you, 'rise, take up your bed, and go to your home.'" Then the man rose and at once took up his bed and went out in the presence of them all, so that they were all filled with wonder and praised God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this."

Why should this man say such a thing? He's blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?

Why did the scribes object to Jesus' words?

What miracle did Jesus perform in this story?

Mark, Chapter 2

Glossary:

Blaspheming – speaking disrespectfully about God
