

The Three Hierarchs

We celebrate The Three Hierarchs on the 30th of January.

St Basil

- He helped the victims of drought and famine.
- He loved children and always assisted the sick and the homeless. He was the first bishop to establish orphanages and hospitals and old people's homes.

John Chrysostom

- He thought and wrote a lot of books, poems and hymns about Jesus and being faithful.
- He could read, his mother made sure that he had holy books to read, especially the Holy Scriptures.
- He was also called Golden Mouth because of the kind words he spoke.

St Gregory

- He spent most of his life teaching and guiding Christians on how to live the right way.
- He preached to families on how to make their families spiritual and their homes godly.

The Three Hierarchs

We celebrate The Three Hierarchs on the 30th of January.

St Basil

- He helped the victims of drought and famine.
- He loved children and always assisted the sick and the homeless. He was the first bishop to establish orphanages and hospitals and old people's homes.

John Chrysostom

- He thought and wrote a lot of books, poems and hymns about Jesus and being faithful.
- He could read, his mother made sure that he had holy books to read, especially the Holy Scriptures.
- He was also called Golden Mouth because of the kind words he spoke.

St Gregory

- He spent most of his life teaching and guiding Christians on how to live the right way.
- He preached to families on how to make their families spiritual and their homes godly.

1. What date is the Feast Day of the Three Hierarchs?
2. Why is St Basil special?
3. Name three things that St Basil did to help people?
4. Why is St John Chrysostom known as 'Golden Mouth'?
5. What types of books did St John Chrysostom write?
6. What did St Basil spend most of his life doing?
7. What did he preach to families?
8. What kind and helpful things do you do to spread kindness?
9. What would you like to become better in and why?