WALT: Use the present perfect form of verbs in contrast to the simple past tense.

WILF: I can identify verbs in a sentence. I know if a verb tense refers to past or present action. I understand the terms 'present perfect tense' and 'simple past tense'. I can choose the appropriate tense for my sentence.

Starter Activity

My friend Gabriel has lived in this town for five years and we have been best friends all that time. Before he came to our town, he was in Birmingham but his mum got a new job so the family moved here. When I met Gabriel, he spoke with a 'Brummie' accent, but his dad says he has taken on the way I speak, so now he sounds as if he has been here all his life!

Plenary

What have we learned?

We use the simple past tense to talk about events that are completely in the past.

e.g. Aretha went to school yesterday.

The present perfect tense is for events which are still true now or affect us in the present.

e.g. Where's Aretha? Well, it's 9am, so she has gone to school.

e.g. Aretha's exhausted because she has been on a school trip all day.
