

Dawn at Midnight.

Circle the correct answer.

What was the boy a member of?

Cubs

Scouts

St John's
Ambulance

Boys Brigade

Where was the camp?

(1)

---

---

Which word does the author use to show that the flagpole wouldn't be up for very long?

(1)

---

Tick true or false

The girls' tents were on the left hand side of the camp.

There was no mention of toilet tents.

All of the children in the camp knew each other

The dog was vicious.

The boy tripped over the flagpole wires.

T	F

Dawn at Midnight

Draw lines to match the statements.

Old English Sheep dog

To the moonlight.

The boy was illuminated

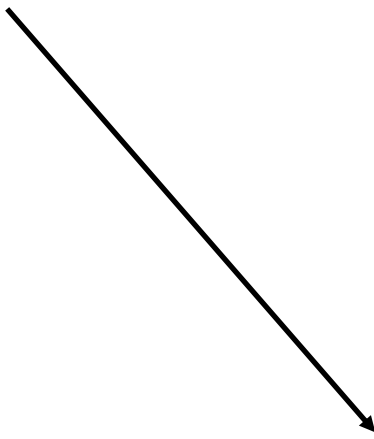

By the torchlight.

The boy adjusted his eyesight

The Oxford Corner Cafe

The author bumped into
Dawn

The breed of the dog.

Number these statements to put them in the correct order.

Someone whistled a signal

A couple of adults tripped on the flagpole wire

The camp leader shouted at the boy

The dog gave chase

The boy left the tent for the second time

Torchlights illuminated the boy

1

Why does the author refer to the other boys in his tent as 'the five conspirators'?

(1)

---

---

---

Dawn at Midnight

Name three places where the dog chased the boy. (3)

---

---

---

What two things was the boy more scared of than being bitten by the dog? (2)

---

---

The author uses the made up word 'splother'. What do you think is the closest meaning to the word 'splother'?

Tick one.

Muddy paw prints.

Shedding lots of hair.

Covered in slimy dog drool and spit.

Being really tired.

'I was the hero of the hour, a camp legend.' What two things did the other children do to make the author feel this way? (2)

---

---

Dawn at Midnight

What stylistic literary device does the author use to describe himself once the torches were put on him. (1)

---

---

Why does the author call the title 'strange'? (1)

---

---

Why does the author use the word 'TWANG'? (1)

---

The boy would describe himself to be generally 'well-behaved'. (3)
Explain your choice using evidence from the text.

True/False

---

---

---

---

---

---